

The National Organization for the Reform of Marijuana Laws
(NORML)

In cooperation with the Congressional Cannabis Caucus

Invites you to an informational panel on:

The Faces of Marijuana Prohibition

Wednesday, April 19

1:00pm-2:00pm

Cannon 122

Refreshments Provided

Come discuss the ramifications of current federal marijuana policies and the impact they have on the lives of everyday Americans.

You will hear personal stories of those directly affected by marijuana prohibition, including medical marijuana patients and those who have experienced being saddled with a criminal record and the lifelong collateral consequences that accompany a marijuana possession arrest. Discussion will include the legislative remedies available to rollback the prohibition.

Following the briefing the panel will participate in audience Q&A.

RSVP's are requested but not required.

Contact NORML Political Director Justin Strekal at
Justin@norml.org or 202-483-5500 to RSVP or with any questions.

This event has been organized to meet the requirements for a widely attended event as set forth in the Congressional ethics rules.
