

NORML Weekend Weed Read

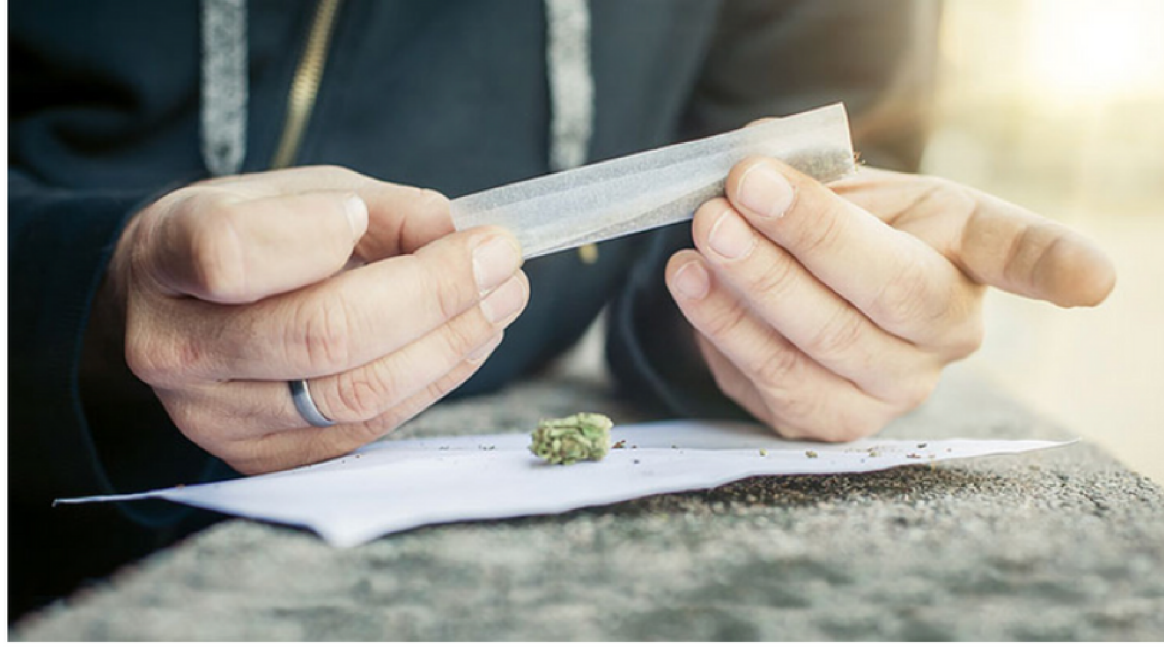

THE TOP NEWS IN MARIJUANA LAW REFORM

Weekend Weed Read • April 27, 2024

Patients using high-THC cannabis flower report it to be safe and effective, pushing back against claims that cannabis higher in THC poses unique risks to health or that there is an absence of research supporting the efficacy of medical cannabis above 10% THC.

READ MORE

Using certain brands of commercially available rolling papers may result in heavy metal exposure.

READ MORE

There's no 'buyer's remorse' among the public when it comes to legalizing cannabis. 67% of Colorado voters say that "allowing the regulation of marijuana" is a "good thing."

READ MORE

NORML
Aspen Legal Seminar
JOIN US
MAY 30 - JUNE 1

Neither the passage of adult-use legalization laws nor retail cannabis sales is associated with increased marijuana use by adolescents, according to data published this week in JAMA (Journal of the American Medical Association) Psychiatry.

READ MORE

Kentucky's governor signs legislation to expedite medical cannabis licensing, but the bill also requires patients to undergo criminal background checks.

READ MORE

Maine's governor signs legislation permitting the expungement of marijuana-related convictions for activities that have since been legalized.

READ MORE

NORML's mission is supported by thousands of people across America as we work to reform marijuana laws in all 50 states and at the federal level.

Chip in $5 now to help us keep up the fight.

NORML and The NORML Foundation
1420 K Street, NW, Suite 350
Washington, DC 20005
(202) 483-5500 • norml@norml.org

Cannabis policy should be evidence-based.
Dispel marijuana myths with the NORML Fact Sheets.